

The Gale (p1-4)

The children were away on _____ .

They were _____ at Dolphin Bay.

They went _____ to the bay.

"It's a _____ day," said Mum, "and it may rain."

A _____ wind had come up.

The waves were _____ and there was a lot of

_____ .

A man had a loud _____ .

"My name is Phil," he said. "You must not go in the waves

_____ .

holiday

staying

down

grey

strong

big spray

hailer

today

The Gale (p5-8)

"You must stay out," _____ Phil.

"The waves are too _____."

All the _____ boats had come in.

The boats were put _____.

A man had a hard job to pull _____ his sail.

Phil ran to _____ him.

The _____ went back to the tent.

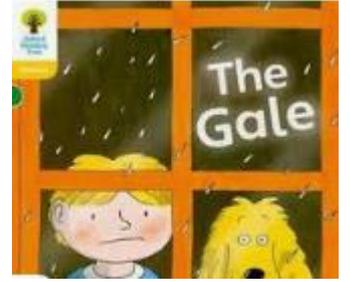

"There may be a _____," said Dad.

"We must make the _____ safe."

called	high	sailing	away
down	help	children	gale
tent

The Gale (p9-16)

"We must lash the _____ down," said Mum.

They put in _____ extra pegs.

The tent had a rip in one _____ .

Mum had some _____ to fix it.

Dad got a plastic _____ .

"Just in case the _____ drips in," he said.

The wind came up. It got dark. "Not long to _____ ," said Dad.

The storm _____ .

It began to rain. It came lashing down. The wind began to _____ .

Floppy was _____ . He did not like the gale, and he began to howl.

tent

eight

corner

tape

pail

rain

wait

came

wail

afraid